Dear Candidates:

In an effort to ensure compliance with applicable state law and local ordinance, the City is respectfully requesting all candidates' cooperation in the following respects regarding the placement of campaign or political signs:

- Please avoid placement of signs on city property or in any public right-of-way; and
- Please avoid placement of signs on any utility poles, light standards or other public facility; and
- Please avoid placement of signs in areas which will obstruct drivers' clear view of intersections; and
- Please make sure that you have the permission of property owners before placing signs on private property.

Should you have any questions regarding right-of-way locations or questions regarding any of the above requests, you are welcome to contact me at 817-598-4202.

Your cooperation with these requests is appreciated.

Sincerely,
